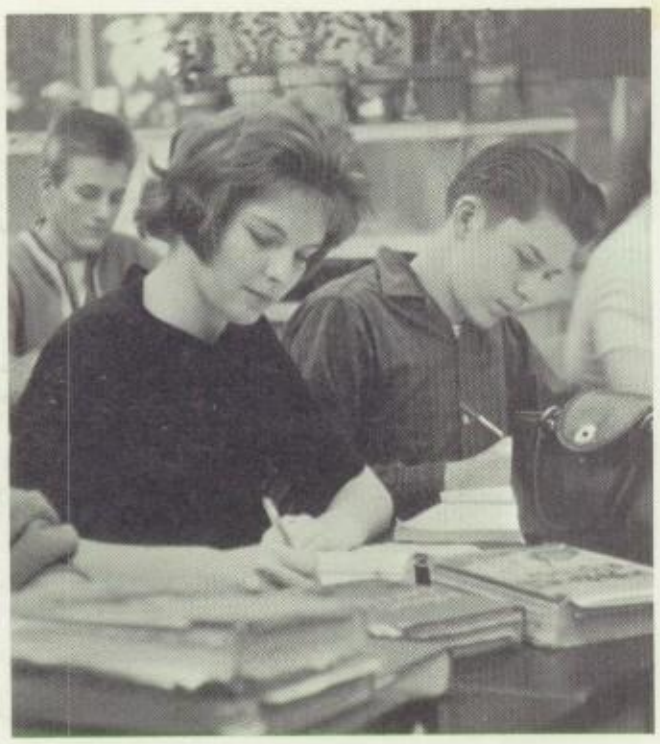
Attentive students and faculty members enjoy one of many assembly programs.

Students take an active part in the planning and management of school activities.



Students doing written assignmemts is a very familiar sight at Fitch.

Dear,
A real sweet kid. Stay that way always. Good luck in all you do may God Bless you always especially with Diane,

fitch is PEOPLE

Memories! Memories, this year bound within a bold, new, cover, are created by a concoction of people and places. The place is Fitch High School; the people are you: the students, faculty, and administration.

This yearbook is designed to break through the wall of conformity which surrounds past yearbooks. It strives to place people in the spotlight and to record events concerning those people. The 1963 REFLECTOR attempts to capture emotion, mood, and sentiments of the students through a gallery of pictures.

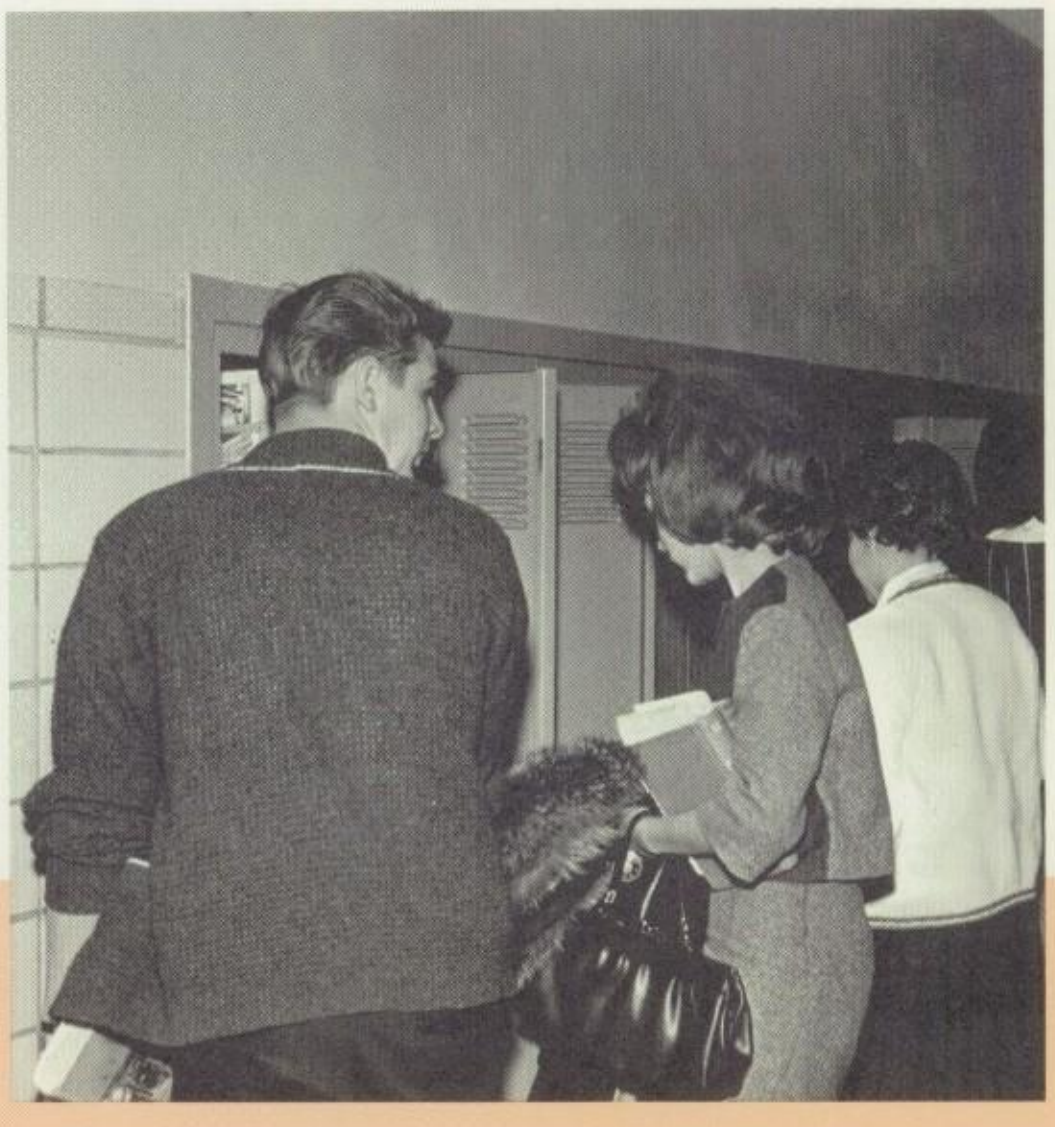
A diary records the personal feelings of only one person, the REFLECTOR records the feelings of many, many people. The memories it contains never fade completely; they grow old just as the people do, but the older the memories, the dearer they become.

people in a HURRY

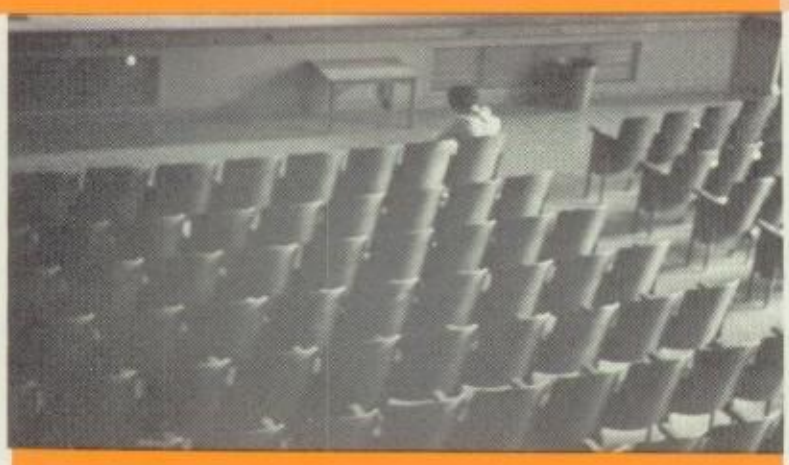
Flashbulbs snapping —
A photographer's here,
Aspirin, cough drops?
Nurse's aides appear,
Teaching youngsters
Future teachers try,
Math clubbers rally —
Lift slide rules on high,
Sportsmen encourage —
The team to support,
Tattle Tale staff digs up
News to report,
Deutsche Studenten
And Los Companeros,
Shouting, dashing
Girls and fellows,
To classes, to meetings
Away they all fly,
Eager Falcons
Flying high!

Kathy Connors

This disorder is mute testimony to the hurried lives which our band members lead.

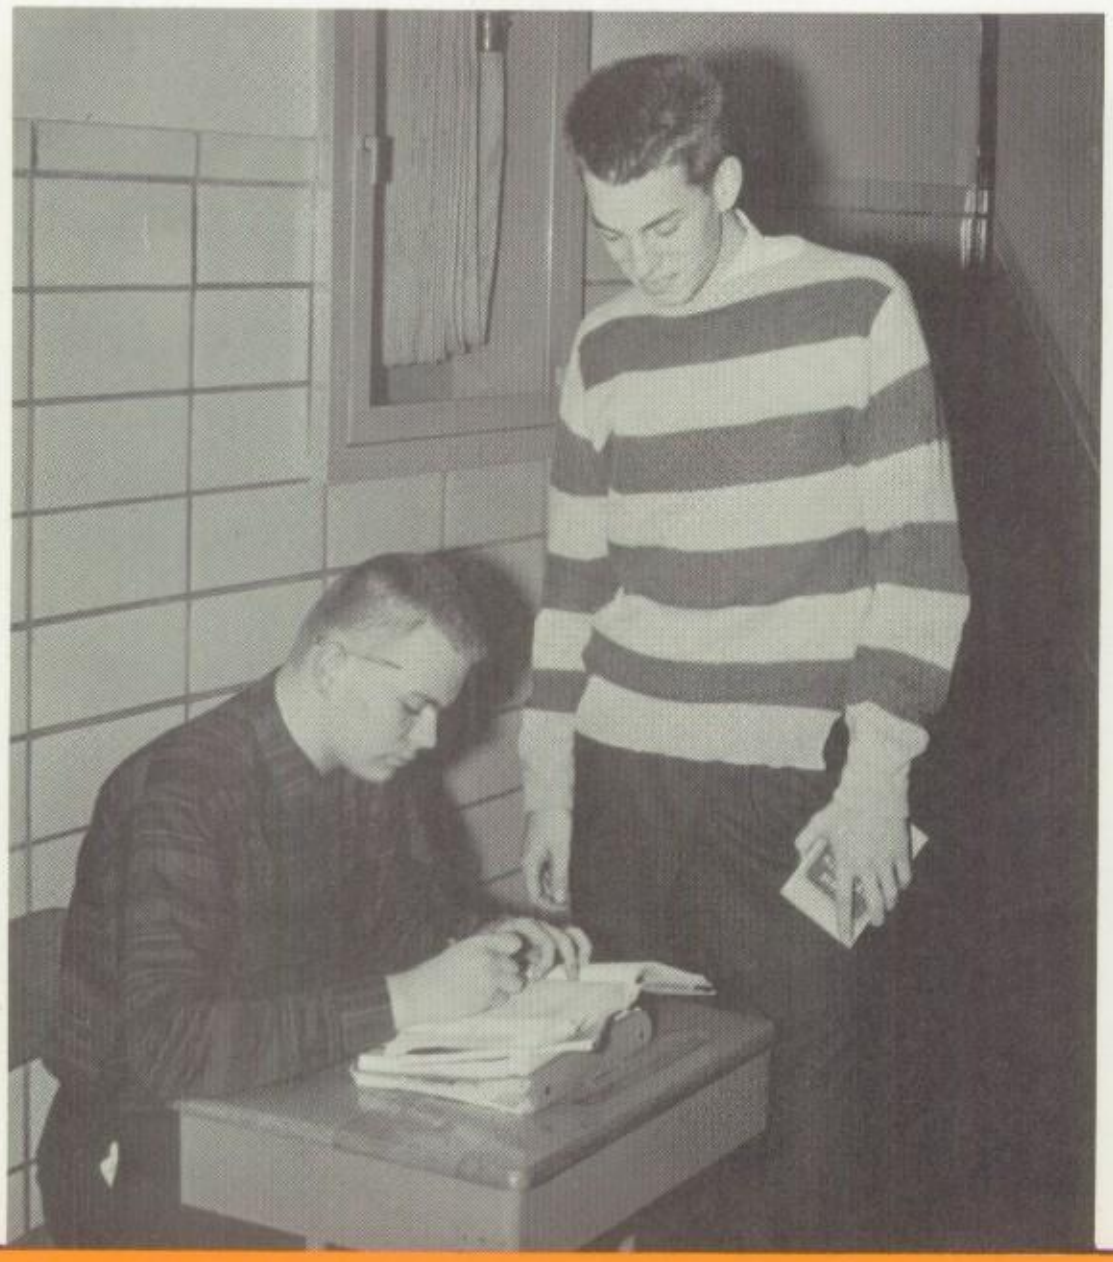


The clanking and banging of locker doors ends another school day.



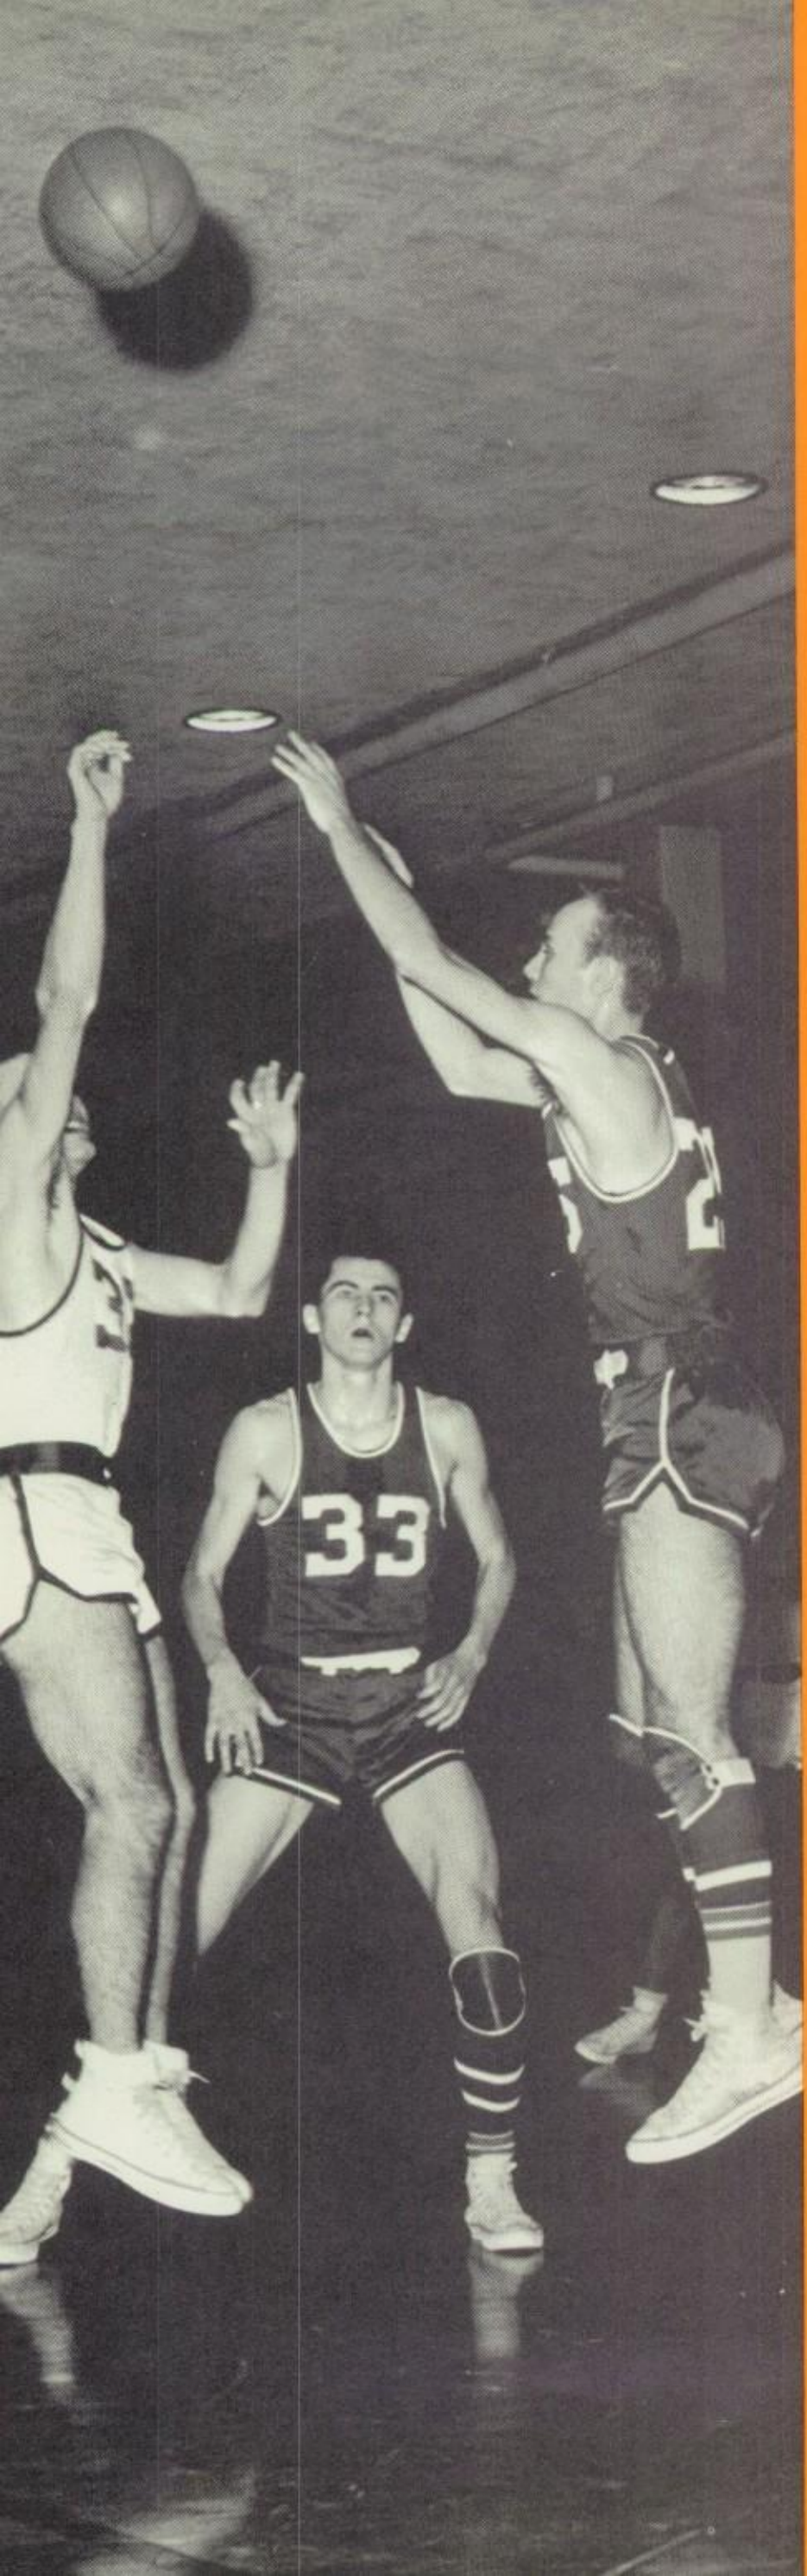
In the hectic times of today, a few moments of silence and solitude are precious.

The pitter-patter of hurrying feet is constantly heard in the halls.



One of the major duties of a monitor is to hurry students who dilly-dally in the halls.

This is only a bit of the chaos which engulfs the buses at the end of every school day.



Reach for the stars. You may not get one, but you will never end up with a handful of mud.

With all that homework, she better hurry if she wants to finish before the next morning.

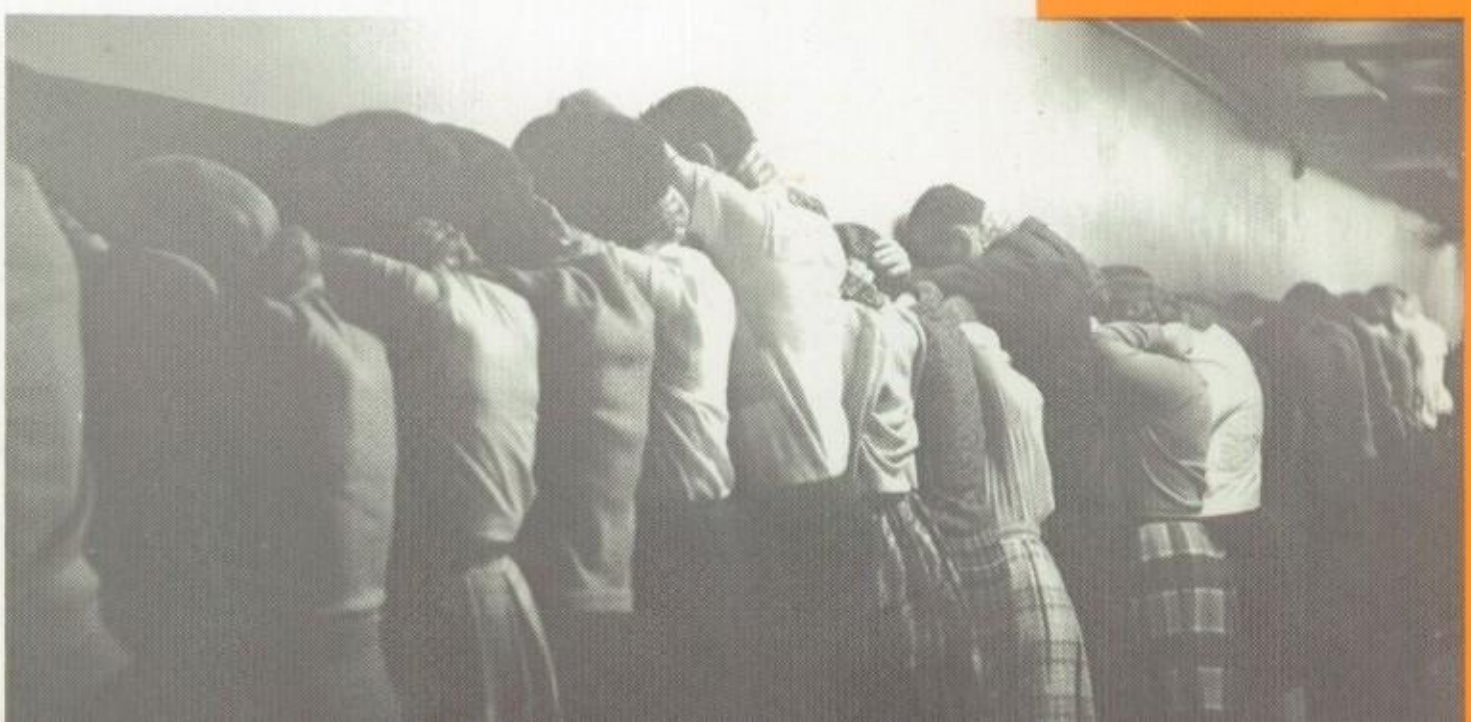
SPIRIT

Lavendar and white, the Class of '63
In happy sadness about to be free,
Juniors and sophomores waiting their turn,
Freshmen who's just now started to learn
To honor, respect, and pay homage to
The beloved home of the Red and the Blue;
Halls that echoed of victory
For the Steel Valley Champs of 1963,
Classrooms of learning, guidance, and aid,
Dedicated teachers, seldom repaid
For hours of helping us climb the road
To shining futures and dreams untold.
Today we scream and today we cheer
For Our School, Our Team; another day a tear
Will find its way through our hearts and souls
Remembering Fitch High, her aims, and her goals.

Kathy Connors

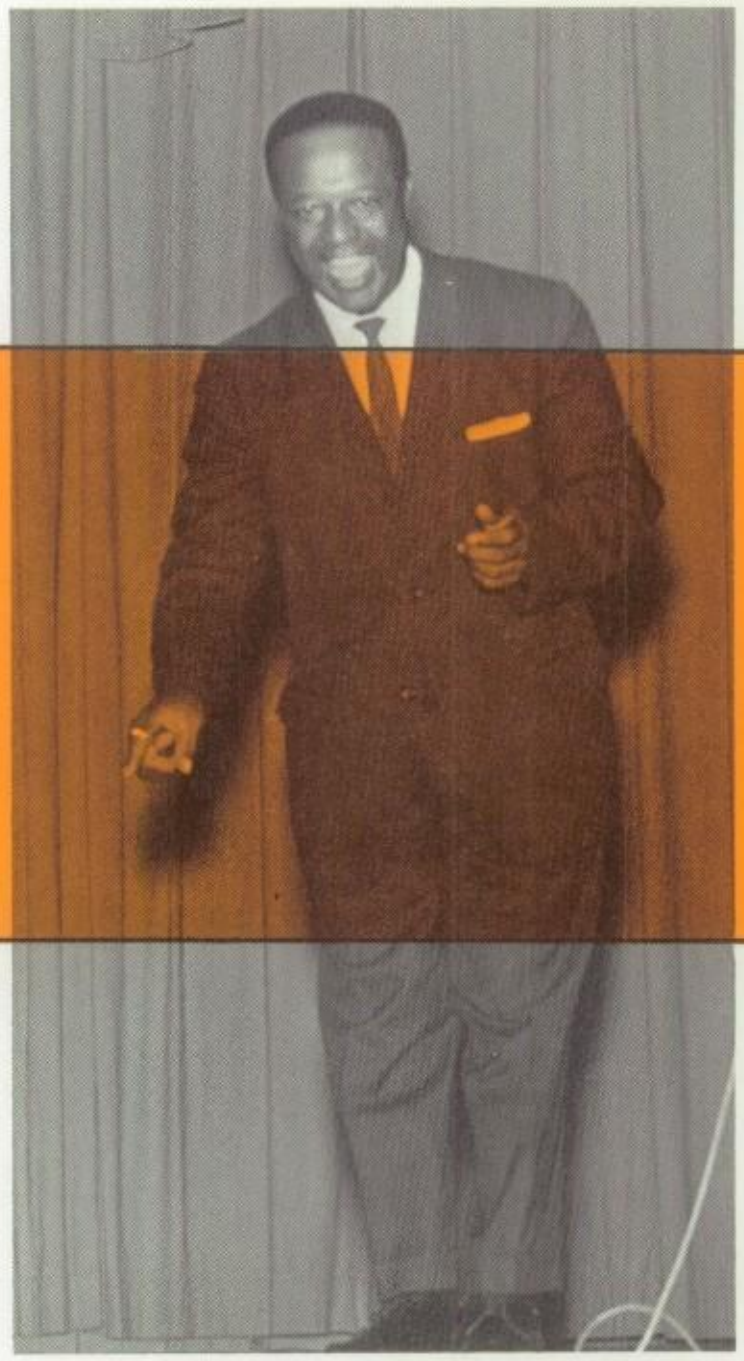
The eeriness of this picture reflects the seriousness of the Cuban crisis.



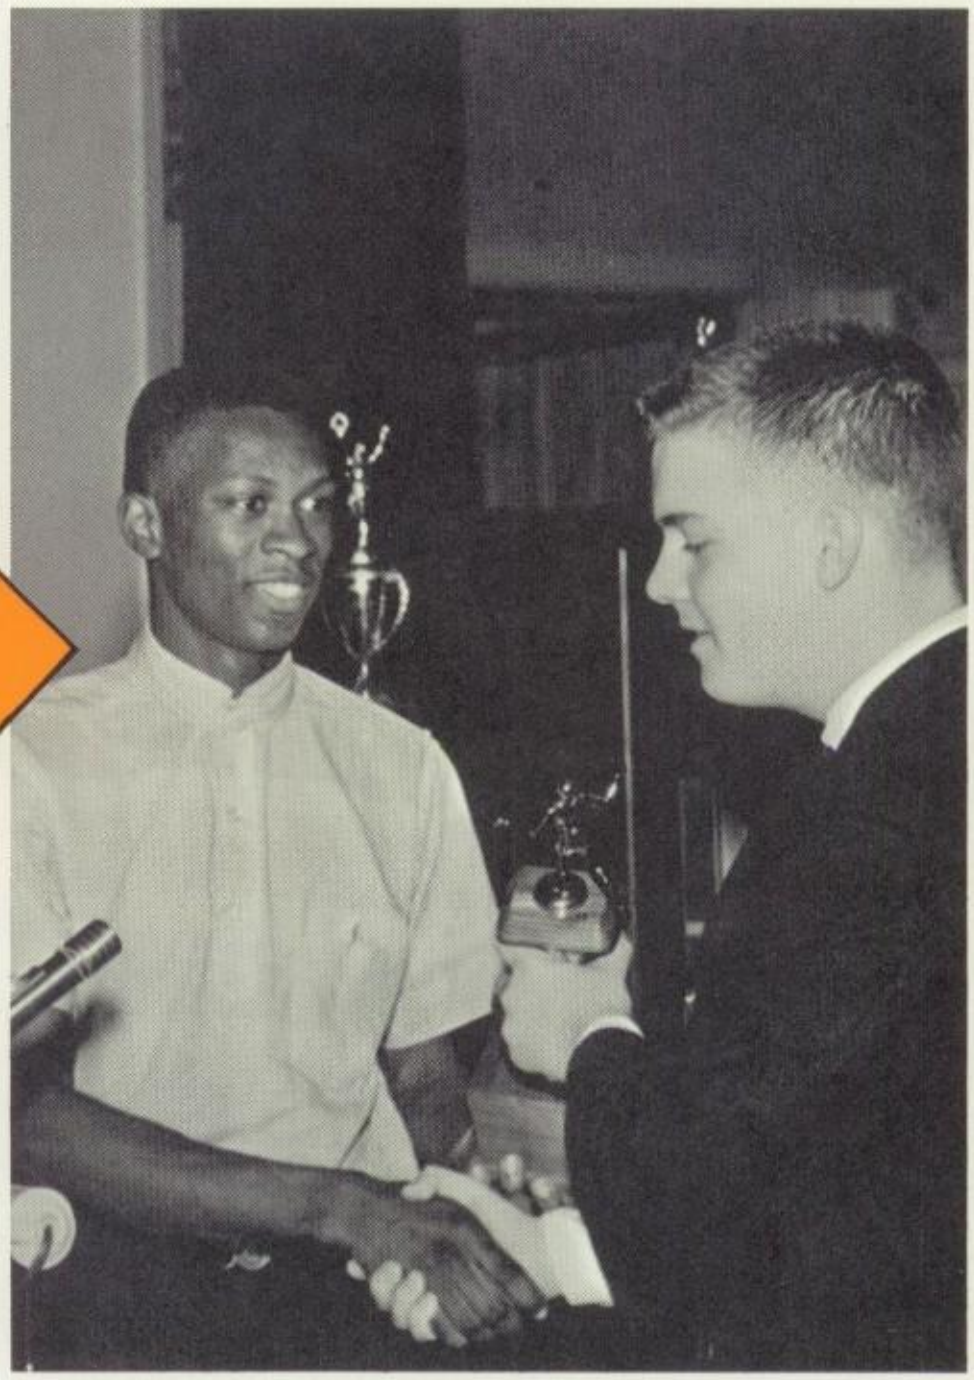
A dull book is no basis for a spirited book report given before the class.

The band members are great spirit builders, but they can't read signs too well.

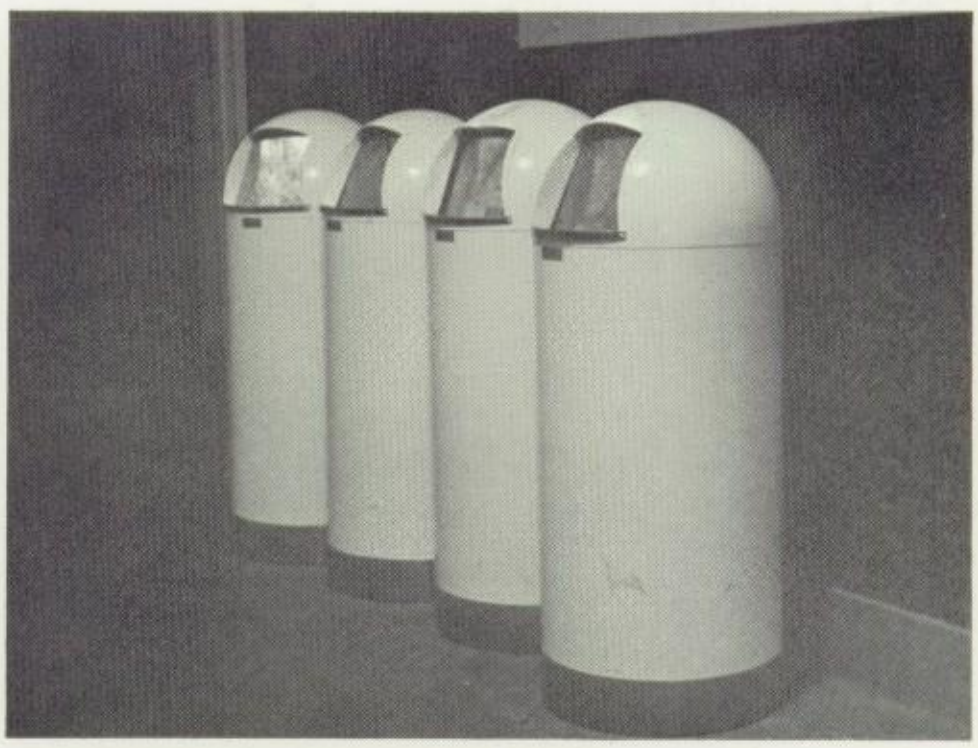
10



Group singing of "Rock-a My Soul" was included in the program presented by Mr. Charles King.



In order to receive this trophy, he put effort and winning spirit into his performances on the cinders.



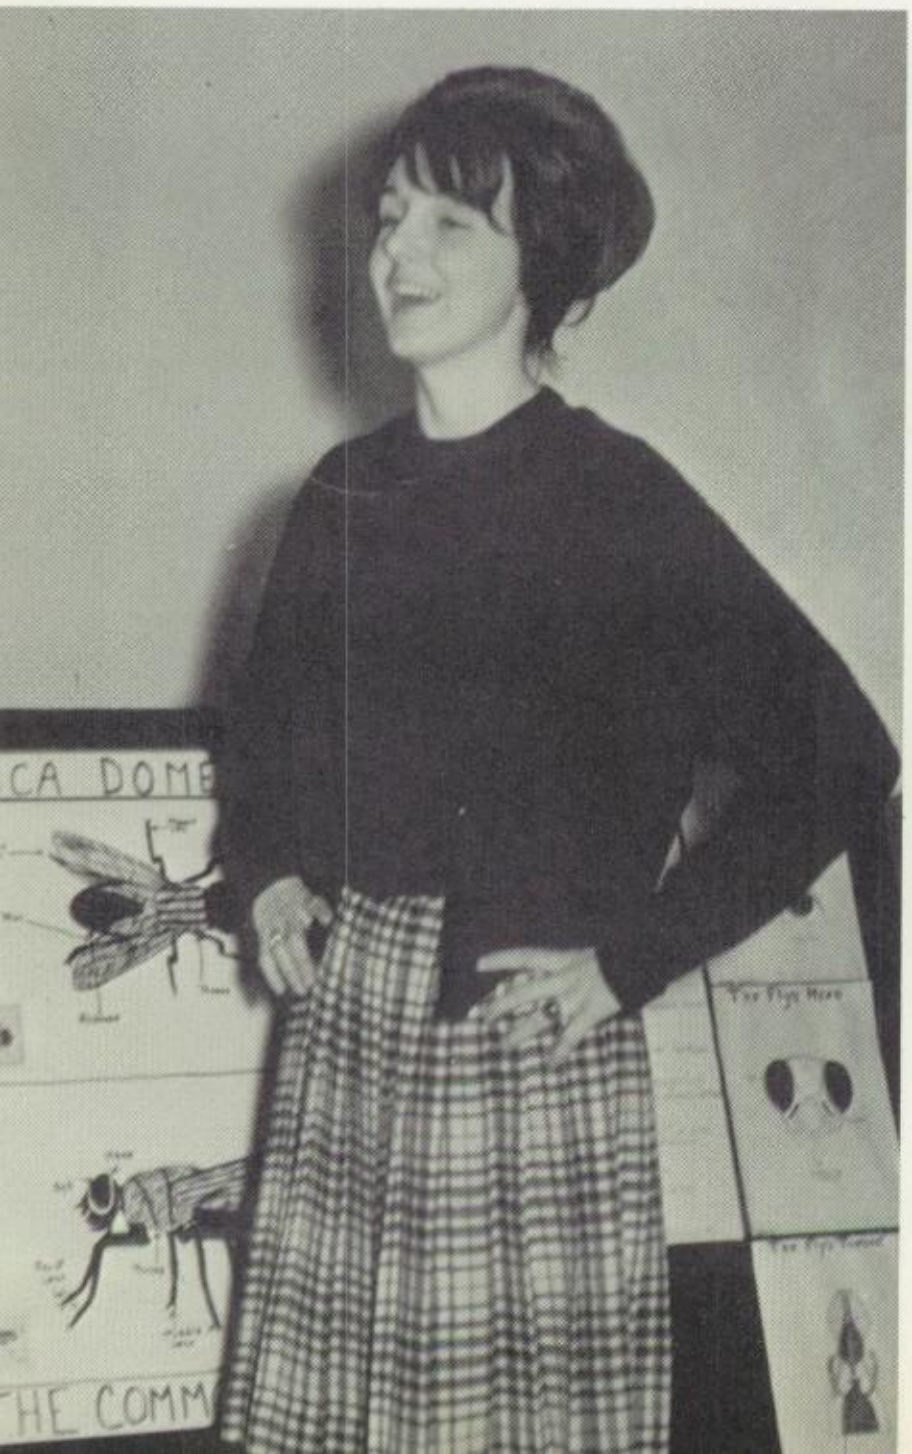
These dejected souls bear the marks of combat received while in their line of duty each afternoon.

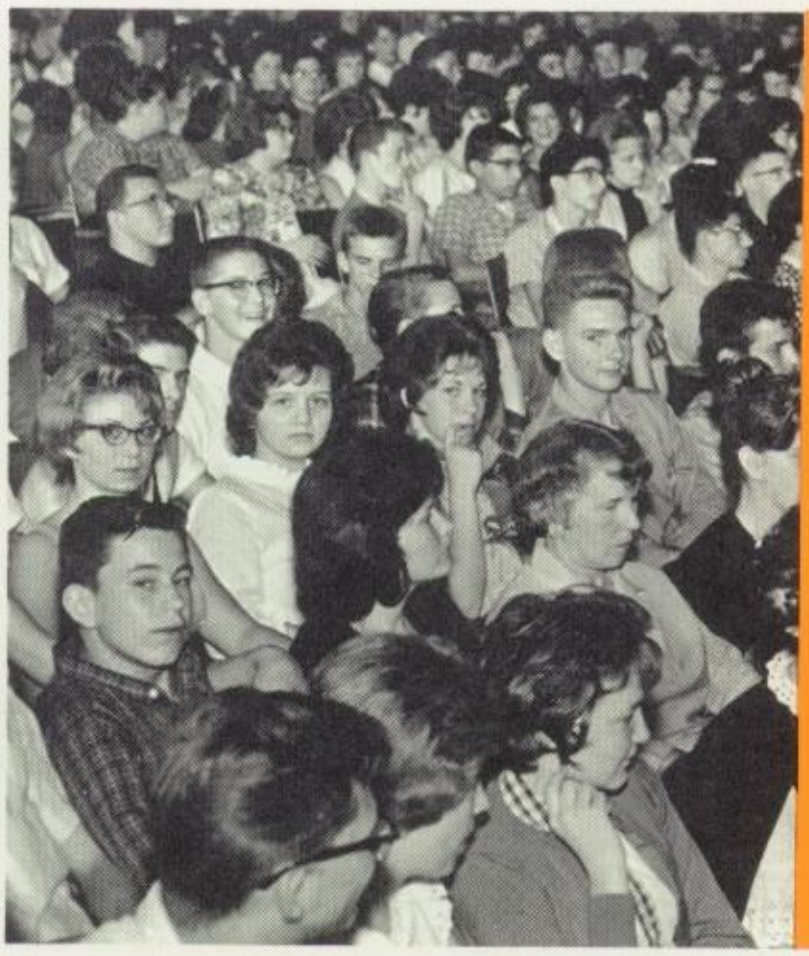
This Induction confirms the presence of scholarship, leadership, character, and service in Fitch students.

people who have FUN

Fitchites, Falcons having fun,
Laughing when their work is done;
Students, scholars dancing now,
Forgetting books and tests " . . . and how!"
Snurfing, twisting with the crowd —
Who cares if they're a little loud?
Or maybe in a gentle air
They dip and sway without a care.
Dinner jackets, clean and white
Swishing skirts and soft, warm light —
Fitchites, Falcons having fun,
Laughing when their work is done;
And often when it isn't!

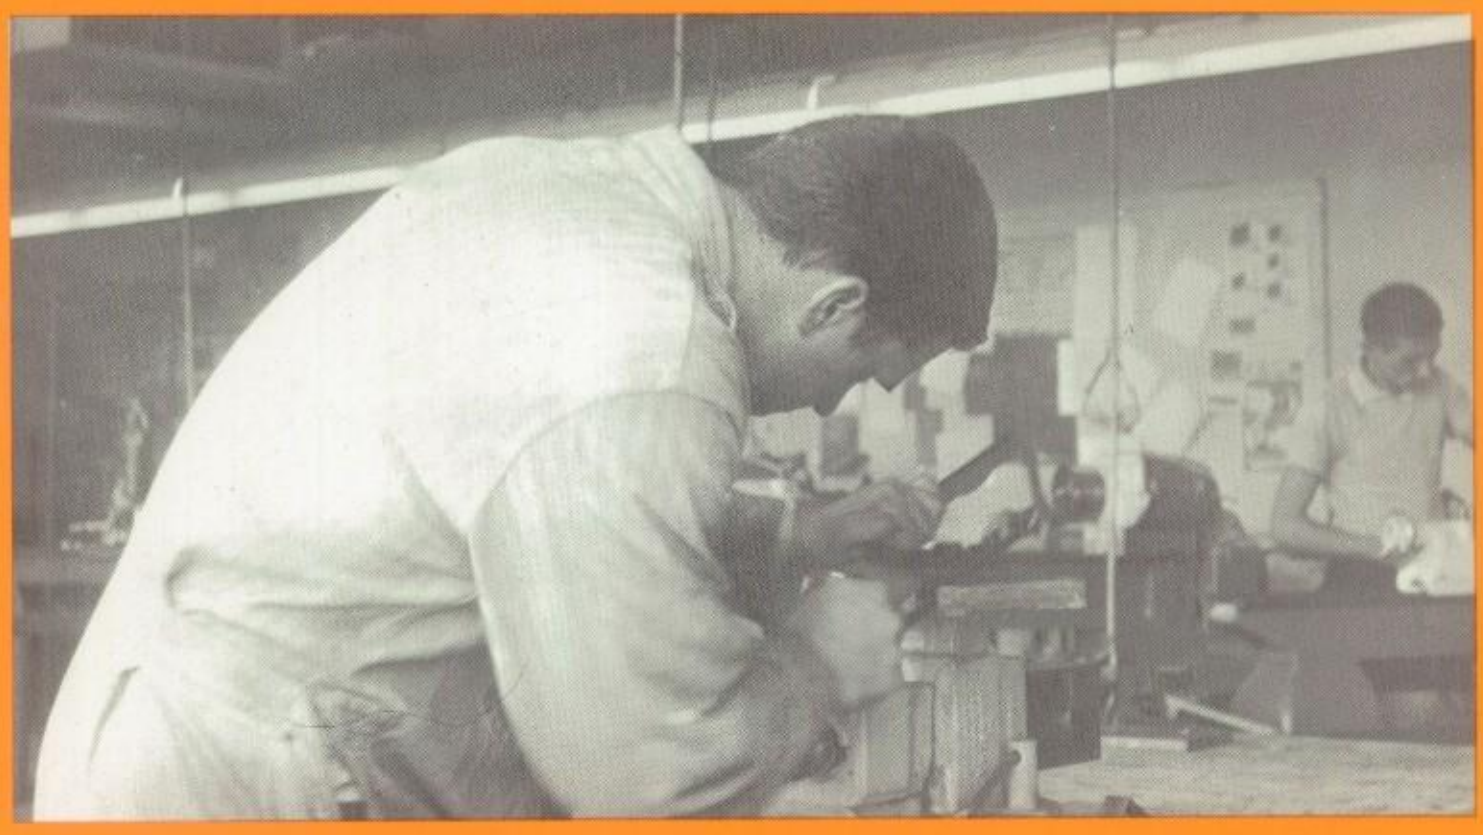
Kathy Connors





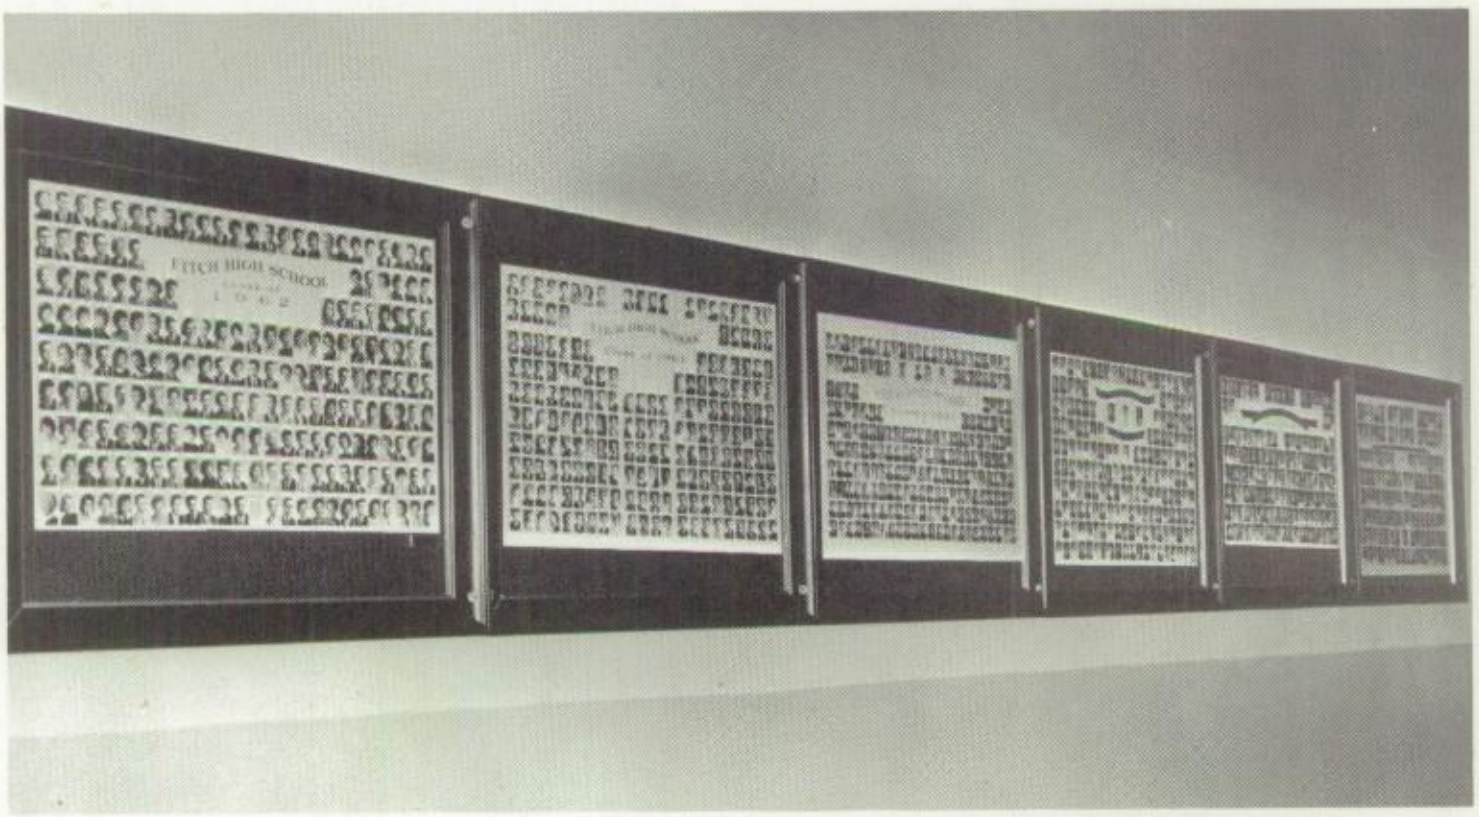
Students enjoy the many and varied assemblies and programs scattered throughout the school year.

Even under the strain of competition at activities such as the science fair, students find time for fun.



Shop work is fun and interesting, but it takes a great deal of time and concentration.

Soon the class of 1963 will add another picture to this already long line of Fitchites of the past.



without people . . .

The first pages of this 1963 REFLECTOR have emphasized people, all types of people. But stop and think a moment about a Fitch without people. The building would stand stripped of its very being. Having no place to go, the buses would stand as silent sentries to the past. Halls now deserted would echo of things done long ago. Books would lay waiting, never to be used; equipment would lay waiting for athletic events, never to be held. Rooms would be haunted by pranks never played, laughter never heard, and friendships never shared. Here, threats would go unuttered, desires unfulfilled. Yet this is only a fantasy, for Fitch does have people, many, many happy wonderful people. It is these people who make up this yearbook and without whom, there would certainly be no REFLECTOR. Now open these pages, the pages of your 1963 REFLECTOR, and meet these people.

board of education

The force behind the Austintown School System is the Board of Education. Their many duties include administering funds for the operation and maintenance of a good educational program and determining policies for a well-organized school district. Also they find themselves faced with the never ending problem of providing space for the constantly growing number of students. It is true that their vital work is never done.

John J. Schuller, Jr.

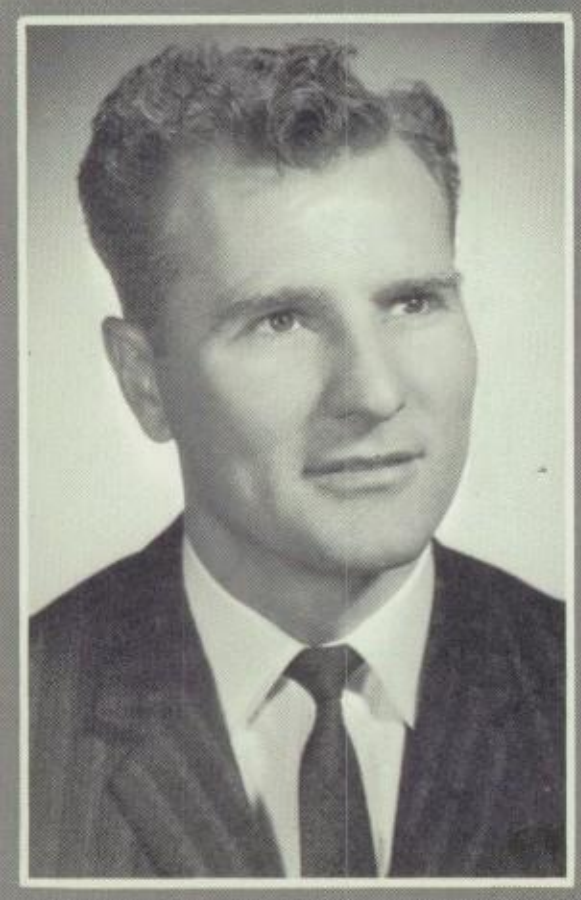
As the executive head of the Austintown Public Schools for four years, Mr. John J. Schuller has filled his office capably.

Mr. Schuller, who earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree at Newberry College and his Master of Education Degree at Kent State University, has served Fitch for eighteen years, seven of which he was the principal of the high school. Mr. Schuller is truly an outstanding man in his field.

Stewart G. Wagner

Mr. Wagner, our principal for the past four years, has proven himself an outstanding and capable administrator. During the past twenty-seven years he has served as principal of the junior high, dean of men, and a teacher of government, American history, and guidance.

Mr. Wagner received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Youngstown University and his Master of Education Degree from Kent State University.



Cecil L. Duffett

Mr. Duffet has served as assistant high school principal for the past four years. During the previous seven years he taught anatomy and physiology, guidance, health and safety, physical education, and history, and also coached the track team.

Mr. Duffet has received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Youngstown University and his Master of Education Degree from Kent State University.

faculty

Eager to teach and advise their students, our faculty members rank high among their fellow kind. A rare free period is often rendered to explain material to a confused student, or to administer make-up tests. They organize and supervise student organizations and spend many Friday nights chaperoning recreational functions.

Our guidance counselors spend many hours administering the vast amount of scholarship and psychology test. These vivacious people arrange for attendance at the various area conferences.

Twenty-four additions have been made to our list of faculty members this year. These people are trying endlessly to equal the work of their peers.

cafeteria

Hard to please are the students of Austintown, but the cafeteria workers satisfy their appetites with the tantalizing meals which they prepare. With the aid of a dietician these excellent cooks create nutritious hot lunches to satisfy the hungry teen-agers and to renew energy for the long afternoon before them.

secretaries

The numerous jobs of the secretaries are never done as they carry out the duties of switchboard operators, typists, stenographers, messengers, mimeograph operators, and many other tasks too numerous to mention. These "ladies behind the scene" certainly deserve recognition and a load of thanks for their great service to the school.

janitors

Keeping the school clean and in excellent running order is the most important duty of the janitors. Always on the go, their many jobs include repairing desks, polishing floors, and replacing burned-out lights.

bus drivers

The bus drivers perform an important service for the school. With the clamor and din of excited voices in their ears, they often battle rain, sleet, snow, and ice to transport the students of Austintown.

national honor society

Many new practices have been adopted during this 1962-63 school year. The traditional biannual election of new members is now an annual event taking place at mid-year. Because of this change new members are unable to be pictured. Induction ceremonies are held in the gymnasium in February, with a tea for the parents afterwards. Basic principles, however, remain unchanged — the standard qualifications of Leadership, Service, Scholarship, and Character.

Members of the Chapter work earnestly, with the guidance of Mrs. Boyer, at the management of the previously mentioned activities, the audio program, and distribution of football programs. The Scholarship Banquet ending the busy year is taken care of entirely by the newly inducted members.

1963 inductees

falcon club

During the 1961-62 school year, Mr. Wagner and Mr. Duffet organized the Falcon Club to encourage achievement in regular scholastic work and in competitive tests. A person must obtain eight points from honor roll and tests involving competition to be eligible for membership in the club.

The initial members were Mark Pickhaver, Nancy Campbell, James Callen, Carole Jones, Barry Richardson, James Hoover, Victoria Granley, and Richard Lobritz.

A graduate of 1962, Nancy Peterson, designed the Falcon Club pin.

national honor society council

The National Honor Society Council is a group of faculty members whose purpose is to elect qualified juniors and seniors to the National Honor Society. The Council includes the principal and assistant principal, and faculty members chosen by the principal. Each faculty member serving on the Council must have completed at least one year at Fitch previous to the year for which he is appointed. Membership in the Council is renewed yearly.

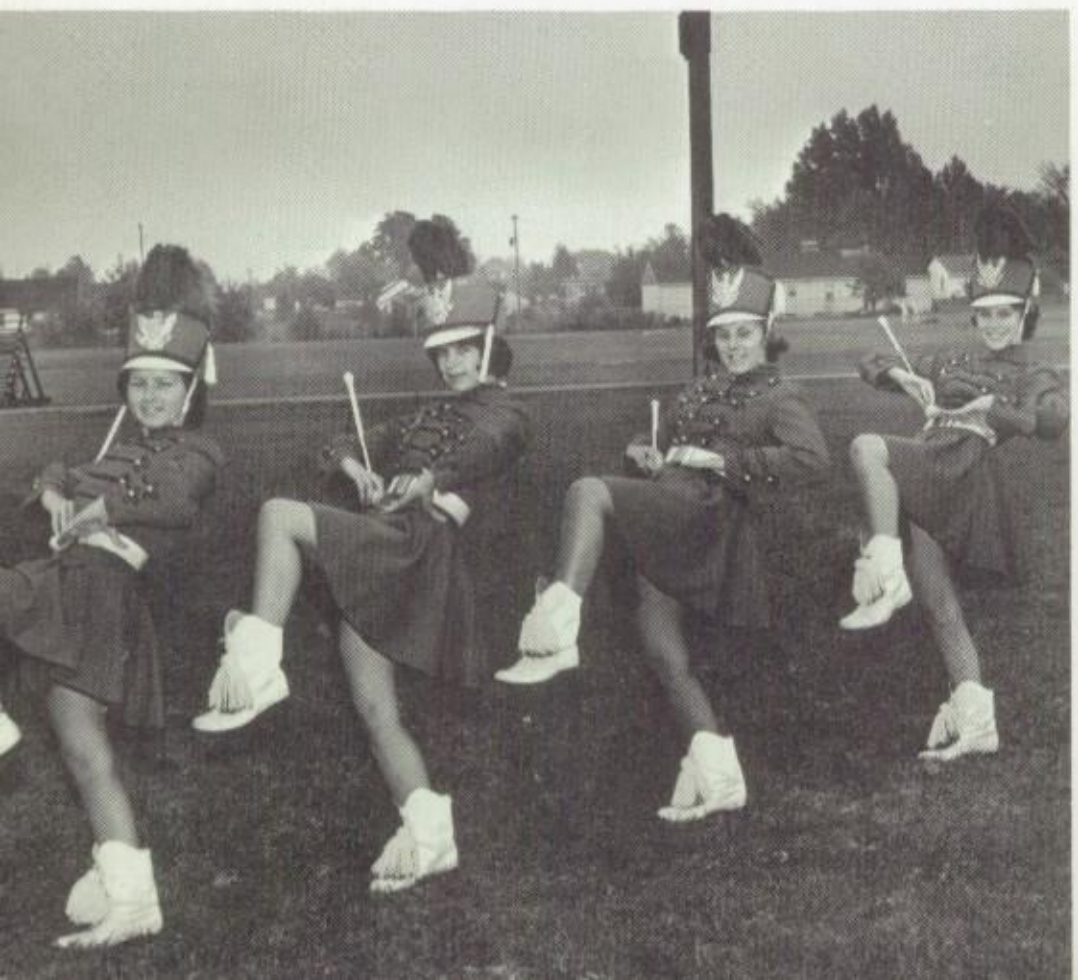
senior high band



majorettes

High-stepping, baton-twirling majorettes are the trademark of the Fitch band. During half-time of the basketball and football games, these girls can be seen performing their skilled maneuvers. They also provide entertainment in many parades in the area.

Paulette Petrella, Catherine Brown, Marie Shina, Beverly Little.

Under the direction of Mr. Hurrelbrink, the Fitch Senior High Band plays an important part in the school activities. Attractively dressed in red, blue, and gold uniforms, these talented students entertain during half-time at football and basketball games, participate in school assemblies, and perform in annual concerts.

In the spring of 1962 the band received a I rating in district competition and went on to receive a II in the state. Also in the state 26 students rated I's in solo and ensembles competition.

color guard

Carrying "The Stars and Stripes" in front of the band is the duty of the Color Guards. The quartet of lassies proudly hold the flag high during the singing of our National Anthem at the football and basketball games. They also march at other times when the band performs.

concert chorus

The Concert Chorus, made up primarily of juniors and seniors, has replaced the Twilighters as the representative Fitch choir. Under the direction of Miss Kascher, the Chorus tries to create an awareness of the importance of music in our community. They sing at school assemblies and for various groups in our township.

male octet

The Octet is the newly organized counterpart of the Sextet. Its main purpose is to interest boys in singing. They also have sung for organizations throughout the area.

girls' sextet

The Sextet is a selective group of girls from the Concert Chorus. The girls represent Fitch and the Chorus as a smaller group of songstresses. Both the Sextet and the Octet are under the direction of Miss Kascher.

Scoring high on a home economics test for seniors girls, Dottie Robinette won the title of Fitch's Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The goal of the Fitch chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is to be better prepared to meet the challenge of establishing and managing tomorrow's American homes. In their attempt to become better homemakers, the girls are aided by Mrs. Snell and Mrs. Williams.

This year the F.H.A. has sponsored the Mothers' Tea and the style show. At Christmas time they send baskets of food to needy families, and they bake cookies for the Red Cross to distribute to the TB Sanitorium.

science club

The Science Club was originated in 1955 by the science teachers. The aims of the club are to increase the students' interest in science and to impress upon them the importance of science in the world of today. In order to do this the activities of the club include a field trip and student participation in the local, tri-county, and state science fairs.

math club

The Math Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Pickens, strives to develop and promote an interest in mathematics among the students of the high school. The club's outstanding activity for the year is the mathematics marathon. Mathematics awards are made to the winning team in the marathon at the Scholarship Banquet.

librarians

Stamping books, filing cards, checking shelves, putting away books, typing, and helping students are some of the many duties of the student librarians. Working under the supervision of Mrs. Prosser, the librarians play an important part in making the Fitch library a service organization for students and faculty.

tattle tale staff

Meeting a once-a-month deadline spells W-O-R-K for Tattle Tale Staff members. Reporting, writing copy and heads, typing, making up pages to go to press, proof reading, counting, circulating — that's the routine for each issue — but the efficient staff always meets it's deadline.

future nurses

The Future Nurses Club, a national organization, was begun at Fitch in 1958 under the leadership of Mrs. Krause, the school nurse. Its purposes are to serve the community and acquaint the members with the opportunities, challenges, and problems facing a person entering the medical profession.

Its activities include speakers from various medical fields, tours of hospitals and nursing schools, service projects for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, and a Mothers' and Daughters' Tea in the spring. At the end of the year, two $50 scholarships are awarded to two senior members. This year Mrs. Honey and Mrs. Loch assumed the sponsorship after Mrs. Krause left.

nurses aides

Busy everyday with curing student and faculty ills are Mrs. Krause and her aides. They assist her in her daily routine so that they may obtain a small taste of the nursing profession, an invaluable experience.

key club

Service is the key to the Key Club. Sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, it is an international organization which teaches the young men of our community democratic action, self-confidence, and self-expression.

With Mr. Young as their advisor, the boys have represented our school well by their participation in the minstrel show and in building Austintown Park.

student council

Elected by the student body, the members of the Student Council strive to fulfill the wishes and needs of the high school students. Advised by Mrs. June Loch each member represents his classmates at the meetings held every two weeks.

The council is responsible for the organization of Homecoming, the Inaugural Ball, school assemblies, and many other activities.

office force

Running errands, taking telephone messages, delivering announcements, and locating students and faculty in the building are a few jobs the girls of the office force perform. With the regular secretaries to guide them, the helpers take over the small but time consuming tasks to insure the smooth functioning of the offices.

future secretaries

The Future Secretaries is a newly organized club at Fitch. Its main purpose is to acquaint members with the opportunities of the business world. The club has given the commercial department several dictation belts. It has also set up a special merit program to help the club members prepare themselves for the business world. At the end of the year a special award will be given to the best club member. Mrs. Taylor and Miss Meyer are the club advisors.

future teachers

The Future Teachers of America is a national organization and the local chapter is in its fifth year at Fitch. It attempts to aid its members in gaining knowledge about teaching as a career through planned programs and panel discussions.

Composed of juniors and seniors, the club is sponsored by Mrs. Boyer and Mr. Zupp. Each year it presents a $75.00 scholarship to one senior member.

falconette bowling

Throwing the ball, crossing their fingers, and hoping for a strike, are the actions of the girls on the Falconette Bowling Team. Under the leadership of Mrs. Steiskal the team's main purpose is to promote an interest in sports, especially bowling for girls.

They bowl every Thursday afternoon at the Hyskore Bowling Alley and are planning a banquet in May.

reflector staff

In most cases, good yearbooks are the result of sound planning begun the spring before. They are not composed a few weeks prior to the close of school. During the time from commencement to the opening day of the next school year, a few people, the editors of the REFLECTOR, are busy making plans for the next year's edition. They lay out a dummy, decide the general theme for the book, devise some semblance of continuity, and most of all, formulate policy. Deadlines are tentatively designated. So it has been with this year's REFLECTOR. On the following pages you will see those who have put the memories of 1962-63 together, so that you may look back in the years to come and recall those events. The students made the memories, the students compiled the memories, and the students will reap and enjoy the benefits of reminiscing. If the REFLECTOR is enjoyed in an amount equal to the work put into it, there will be a great pleasure in store for both you and the REFLECTOR staff.

This year in addition to the sponsorship of Mrs. Prosser, the group has the valuable assistance of Mr. Stellers as co-advisor.

editors' note

Now that the 1963 REFLECTOR is at last complete, our task is finished; our labors are ended. It is our sincere desire that you will enjoy the REFLECTOR now and in future years as you acquaint yourself with the people of Fitch. We hope our book has reached these goals, but the final criticism or praise is left to you, the reader.

adventures in paradise

The juniors and seniors of the 1961-62 school year were lost in a world of enchantment at the 1962 Prom. They danced the night away to the music of Nick Barille and his orchestra.

Soft blue and green lights played on the decorations which were set to the theme of "Adventures in Paradise."

Reigning over the festivities as the Prom queen and king were seniors Pat Woods and Jim Jacobson.

homecoming

With tears streaming down her face, Vendla Koenitzer, our American Field Service student from Germany, was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1962 by Karen Matthews, last year's queen. During the half-time ceremonies of the Fitch-Brookfield game, six shiny convertibles carried the queen and her court to the grandstand. As the band played "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," Vendla was escorted to the center of the football field and received the honor bestowed upon her. After the coronation the band played our Alma Mater which has the same melody as the national anthem of Vendla's homeland.

After the victorious game Vendla and her court, which included Mary Ellen Sanko, Judy Martin, Judy Beichler, and Debbie Keagle reigned at the Homecoming dance in the gymnasium.

football

The Falcon gridders under the direction of the new head coach, Robert Winterburn, won their first Steel Valley Championship since the '58 season. Coach Winterburn with his able assistants, Eugene Chepke, James Cullinan, William Davis, James D'Eramo, Manuel Garcia, and Robert Roth, completed the season undefeated after dropping the first two games by only a two point loss in each. The team displayed a great effort throughout the season. The Girard game was the last for fourteen Falcon seniors on the gridiron.

The Fitch Team placed six members on the first string of the Steel Valley Squad. They were Steve Medwick, fullback; Bob Roth, halfback; Co-Captain Ken Baker, end; Jim Garrity, guard; Co-Captain Frank Sachire, tackle; and Paul D'Eramo, center.

YOUTH and the WORLD

"There is many a battle that's yet to be won,
There is many a glorious deed to be done.
The world is still young! For the youth at its door
There are tasks some shall do never dreamed of before.
It is not an old world, worn and wrinkled and gray,
It's a world that is being reborn every day."

acknowledgements

We, the editors, wish to sincerely thank everyone who assisted in the publication of this yearbook.

To our advisors, Mrs. Ada Prosser and Mr. Thomas Stellers, we express greatest appreciation for their endless assistance and encouragement throughout the school year.

We thank our advertisers who have helped in the support of our book.

Our thanks go to Bill Abey for his tireless work in taking pictures for the 1963 REFLECTOR.

We are especially indebted to the faculty and administration for their patience and co-operation during our many interruptions.

To the student body goes our very special appreciation because they are the foundation for this yearbook.

Again we wish to thank everyone who took part in this publication for without people the 1963 REFLECTOR could not exist.

on, e one of greatest guys know. I'll always remember the eat times we had gether (since 1st grade). I now that you'll go far in foot-all and track, but the best of luck nyway.

John "64"

Ron,
to a kid whom I've enjoyed knowing for many years.
I hope that we can be close again next year for our championship drive. Good Luck
